Advantage Online

In an effort to preserve our resources, Metro Credit Union will switch our quarterly publication to an online format available on our website. Advantage is still a great place to learn about credit union developments, financial specials, opportunities to serve and security notices, so make sure you don't miss an issue!

This issue is our last paper publication, but you can continue reading about all of the great products, services and information your credit union has to offer on our website, www.metro.coop.

Money Rock$ At Metro Credit Union

Who doesn't love to look cool and rock out? Music transports us to a world where anything is possible. Show the youth in your life how their credit union can help make those rock-star dreams a reality.

Visit Metro Credit Union during April, and help us celebrate National Credit Union Youth Month. This year's theme, "Money Rock$ At My Credit Union," shows youth and teens how we can help them meet financial goals.

Whether young members are saving up for a vintage guitar, a new iPod or even a college degree in music, we're ready to lend a hand. That's because Metro Credit Union is for members, by members, and we care about youth...and their dreams.

So stop by, and rock out to our Youth Month offer: Metro Credit Union will enter active Birth & Beyond members in a drawing held at the end of April for a fun, music-related prize!

We can show young members how money rocks at the credit union. So keep on rockin', keep on dreamin', and keep on comin' to Metro Credit Union.

Join Us @ The Library For Money Smart Week! April 2-9, 2011

Money Smart Week is a national public awareness campaign designed to help consumers better manage their personal finances. It is a partnership of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, the American Library Association and the Springfield-Greene County Library District. Visit the library all week for fun and informational programs on how to be smart with your money. The library has partnered with area financial institutions and businesses for a series of helpful seminars about your money – from saving it to spending it wisely. The programs are free, and there's something for every age group.

You can find a complete event listing online at thelibrary.springfield.missouri.org. View the Programs and Events table on the lower-right side of the page. On Saturday, April 9, Metro Credit Union will present two separate presentations on money skills for kids and teenagers.

Bunny Money: Money Smarts For Kids & Families

Children will pick up money smarts by shopping with bunny money and hearing a story about smart money habits.

1:30-2:30 p.m.

Library Center Story Hour Room

Teen Tips: Making The Most Of Your Money

Teens and young adults will pick up helpful tips about budgeting and setting goals, using credit effectively and making the most of online tools.
